Conduct:

It is the policy of Pulaski County Recreation that any type of violence, profanity, verbal abuse or unbecoming actions by anyone in any PC Parks & Recreation program will not be tolerated. In the event any of these happen the player or coach will be suspended for a mandatory one game suspension. If the case is severe, suspension can range from one game suspension, to the rest of the season, to one year, to a life suspension. If a suspension is given to a coach or player, he/she cannot participate in any sponsored sports program offered by Pulaski County Recreation.

Any coach or player who is given a red card in a game, will be suspended from that game and the next game played.

Players at no time should argue an officials call. Coaches may calmly and respectfully approach an official during a time out to question a call. Regardless if a coach feels the officiating was poor or disagreeable, coaches are to never complain or blame the officials in the presence of his/her team members. If a coach feels a complaint is justified on an official, he/she should do so in private with a representative of the Recreation Department.

The Pulaski County Parks & Recreation department reserves the right to ban any parent or fan for violence, profanity or verbal abuse.
